

Spring Term – Week 22

This week, we have started our new topic of 'Space'. We have loved going on adventures in the Spaceship and creating junk model rockets. In Maths, we investigated the length and height of objects using rulers and non-standard measurements such as footprints and cubes. We also tasted a range of Chinese food, made paper lanterns and had a go at some chopstick challenges for Chinese New Year.

