

Spring Term – Week 18

This week, we have loved making clay fossils, exploring 'dinosaur eggs' and designing individual eggs using the watercolours. In Maths, we focused on measuring and enjoyed using the bucket scales to weigh different objects, as well as having lots of fun making various magical potions too! In English, we compared the dinosaurs in the story 'Tyrannosaurus Drip' and enjoyed 'hot seating' the characters.

