

Autumn Term – Week 9

This week, we have really enjoyed starting our new topic 'Nursery Rhymes'. We took part in an experiment to test which material would make a soft landing for Humpty Dumpty falling off the wall! We also had lots of fun making firework paintings in the style of Jackson Pollock by flicking paint and printing with tubes. In PE, we started our Real Gym sessions, using our bodies to make tuck, star and straight shapes.

