

MFL French Impact Statement

Quality of Teaching

The quality of teaching French in Key Stage 2 is good.
The new French CUSP scheme builds consistency in how French is taught and detailed subject knowledge.

Quality of Learning

The quality of learning in French Key Stage 2 is good.
Learning in Key Stage 2 continues to progress as it builds on new CUSP learning.

Standards Achieved

Through the introduction of the new French CUSP scheme standards have continued to improve in Key Stage 2.

Evidence

- ◆ Lesson observations
- ◆ Children's work

Evidence

- ◆ Children's work
- ◆ Photographs
- ◆ Lesson observations
- ◆ Audio/video recordings

Evidence

- ◆ Children's work
- ◆ Photographs
- ◆ Lesson observations
- ◆ Audio/video recordings
- ◆ Assessment
- ◆ Feedback from staff and children

Resources

French CUSP subscription
French dictionaries

Assessment

Assessment takes place both during and at the end of each unit block by the class teacher through questioning and observations.

Pupil Voice

Children have expressed that they are enjoying learning another language and associated cultural activities.

Evidence

- ◆ French CUSP subscription

Evidence

- ◆ French CUSP assessment

Evidence

- ◆ Teacher/pupil questions
- ◆ Lesson observations